

FCC,

I think it's disgusting that you plan to get rid of regulations regarding the ownership of multiple media companies within the same area. The media is already too controlled by large corporate interests in this country. These corporate interests wield way too much power and influence and create an environment bereft of original thought. Please reconsider your plans.

Thanks,

Mike Daugherty